

Riley Architect Services Profile

Riley Architect Services, PLLC
Don Riley, Owner

Don Riley, AIA, NCARB began offering architectural services to the general public under the name “Riley Architects” in 1998. Due to the growth and project demands of one client, these services were available only on a part time basis to other clients until June of 2005. At that time, full time services once again became available and subsequent demand fueled the move to offices in the historic court square area of Mayfield, Ky. In February of 2006 articles of incorporation were filed by the Secretary of State officially recognizing the practice as “Riley Architect Services, PLLC”
